

---

SUBJECTS AND COURSES

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS - GEOGRAPHY (GEO)

GEO 100      World Regional Geography

This course surveys various countries and major regions of the world with respect to location and landscape, world importance and political status, population, type of economy, external and internal organization and relations, problems and potentials.      3 Credit Hours

GEO 101      Principles of Physical Geo I

Physical Geography I is the first in a two-part sequence including topics such as weather and climate relative to the earth and relationships between the earth and sun. Laboratory is required.      5 Credit Hours

GEO 102      Principles of Physical Geo II

Physical Geography II is the second in a two-part sequence including topics such as landforms, landscapes, soil and vegetation of the earth. Laboratory is required.      5 Credit Hours

GEO 200      North Amer Geography

This course is a survey of the geography of the United States and Canada with special emphasis on land usage, mineral resources, industrial development, and social and economic adaptation of man and the natural environment.      3 Credit Hours