

SUBJECTS AND COURSES

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS - HISTORY (HIS)

HIS 101H His of Western Civil I Hon

This survey course examines the social, intellectual, economic, cultural, and political developments which have shaped the modern Western world. It covers the history of the West from its earliest beginnings to the early modern era. 3 Credit Hours

HIS 102H His of Western Civ II Hon

This survey course examines the social, intellectual, economic, cultural, and political developments which have shaped the modern Western world. It covers the history of the West from the early modern era to the present. 3 Credit Hours

HIS 201H United States History I Hon

This course surveys United States history during colonial, Revolutionary, early national, and antebellum periods. It concludes with the Civil War.

3 Credit Hours

HIS 202H United States History II Hon

This course is a continuation of HIS 201; it surveys United States history from the Reconstruction era to the present. 3 Credit Hours

HIS 101 History of Western Civil I

This survey course examines the social, intellectual, economic, cultural, and political developments which have shaped the modern Western world. It covers the history of the West from its earliest beginnings to the early modern era. 3 Credit Hours

HIS 102 History Western Civilizati II

This survey course examines the social, intellectual, economic, cultural, and political developments which have shaped the modern Western world. It covers the history of the West from the early modern era to the present. 3 Credit Hours

HIS 121 World History I

This course surveys social, intellectual, economic, and political developments which have molded the modern world. Focus is on both non-western and western civilizations from the prehistoric to the early modern era. 3 Credit Hours

HIS 122 World History II

This course is a continuation of HIS 121; it covers world history, both western and non-western, from the early modern era to the present.

3 Credit Hours

HIS 201 United States History I

This course surveys United States history from the Pre-Columbian period to the Civil War era. 3 Credit Hours

HIS 202 United States History II

This course surveys United States history from the Civil War era to the Modern era. 3 Credit Hours

HIS 216 History of World Religions

This course presents a comparison of the major religions of the world from an historical perspective. Emphasis is placed on the origin, development, and social influence of Christianity, Judaism, Islam, Hinduism, Buddhism, and others. 3 Credit Hours

HIS 256 Afro American History

This course focuses on the experience of African-American people in the Western Hemisphere, particularly in the United States. It surveys the period from the African origins of the slave trade during the period of exploration and colonization to the present. The course presents a comparison between the African experience in the United States and in Mexico and South America. 0 Credit Hours

HIS 260 Alabama History

This course surveys development of the state of Alabama from its prehistoric times to the present. The course presents material on the discovery, exploration, colonization, territorial period, antebellum Alabama, Reconstruction, and modern history. 3 Credit Hours