

SUBJECTS AND COURSES

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS - HUMAN SERVICES (HUS)

HUS 101 Introduction to Human Services

This course provides an introduction to human services and related theories and systems. Emphasis is placed on the roles and functions within the existing human services organizations by utilizing service learning or field trips to the different organizations, and guest lecturers representing different human service occupations. Upon completion of this course students should be familiar with the many agencies and institutions which deliver human services and the components of their delivery systems. 3 Credit Hours

HUS 109 Techniques Behavior Modification

This course provides the basic principles of operant conditioning and behavior modification techniques. Emphasis is placed on the proper use of positive and negative reinforcement and punishment, along with the different schedules of reinforcement. Upon completion of this course, the student will demonstrate the ability to decrease inappropriate behavior and to shape appropriate behavior through the use of behavior modification techniques. 3 Credit Hours

HUS 211 Intro Alcohol & Drug Prev & Ab

This course is an introduction to the pertinent factors involved in the prevention, use, and abuse of alcohol and drugs. Emphasis is placed on a basic orientation to the field of alcohol and drug education and treatment. Upon completion of this course, the student will be aware of the importance of the historical, physiological, sociological, psychological, and economic factors involved in alcoholism. 3 Credit Hours

HUS 222 Group Counseling Techniques

This course provides instruction on group techniques used for facilitating individuals in seeking a variety of social experiences and interests. Emphasis is placed on meeting needs such as status, security and other emotional feelings in a non-threatening atmosphere. Upon completion of this course the student will have attained leadership techniques and skills that enable them to effectively work through the group process. 3 Credit Hours

HUS 224 Clinical Intership I

This course includes field experience in agencies, treatment centers, hospitals, institutions, outpatient clinics, etc. Emphasis is placed on ? hands-on? experience under the supervision of professional staff workers. Upon completion of this course, the student will have an understanding of the role of the human service worker through an observational experience with professional staff. Prerequisite(s): Admission to Human Services Program and advisor approval 12 Credit Hours

HUS 225 Clinical Intership II

This course includes field experience in agencies, treatment centers, hospitals, institutions, outpatient clinics, etc. Emphasis is placed on implementing previously learned theory and techniques. The student will work under the supervision of the agency's professional staff. Upon completion of this course, the student will be able to apply theories and techniques to practice in the clinical setting. 9 Credit Hours