

---

SUBJECTS AND COURSES

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS - RELIGIOUS STUDIES (REL)

---

REL 100 History of World Religions

This course is designed to acquaint the student with the beliefs and practices of the major contemporary religions of the world. This includes the religions of Africa, the Orient, and the western world. The student should have an understanding of the history and origins of the various religions of the world. 3 Credit Hours

REL 101 Survey of Church History I

This is the first course in a sequence of two courses which is a study of the growth and development of the church from the New Testament to the Reformation. 3 Credit Hours

REL 102 Survey of Church History II

This course is the second in a sequence of two courses which is a study of the growth and development of the church from the Reformation to the present day. 3 Credit Hours

REL 116 Church Administration

CODE - C PREREQUISITE: As required by program. This course is a comparative study of various types of church administration. The student should have an understanding of the various types of church administration. 3 Credit Hours

REL 151 Survey of the Old Testament

This course is an introduction to the content of the Old Testament, with emphasis on the historical context and contemporary theological and cultural significance of the Old Testament. The student should have an understanding of the significance of the Old Testament writings upon completion of this course. 3 Credit Hours

REL 152 Survey of the New Testament

This course is a survey of the books of the New Testament, with special attention focused on the historical and geographical setting. The student should have an understanding of the books of the New Testament and the cultural and historical events associated with these writings. 3 Credit Hours