

The Economic Value of Lawson State Community College

Lawson State Community College (Lawson State) creates a significant positive impact on the business community and generates a return on investment to its major stakeholder groups—students, taxpayers, and society. Using a two-pronged approach that involves an economic impact analysis and an investment analysis, this study calculates the benefits received by each of these groups. Results of the analysis reflect fiscal year (FY) 2023-24.

Economic impact analysis

In FY 2023-24, Lawson State added $368.1 million in income to the Lawson Service Area* economy. Expressed in terms of jobs, Lawson State's impact supported 4,765 jobs.

The Lawson Service Area, Alabama

* For the purposes of this analysis, the Lawson Service Area is comprised of Jefferson and Shelby Counties.

Operations spending impact

- Lawson State employed 397 full-time and part-time faculty and staff. Payroll amounted to $20.4 million, much of which was spent in the region for groceries, mortgage and rent payments, dining out, and other household expenses. The college spent another $18.0 million on its expenses related to facilities, supplies, and professional services (excluding construction).
- The net impact of the college's operations spending added $33.2 million in income to the regional economy in FY 2023-24.

Construction spending impact

- Lawson State invests in capital projects each year to maintain its facilities, create additional capacities, and meet its growing educational demands, generating a short-term infusion of spending and jobs in the regional economy.
- The net impact of Lawson State's construction spending in FY 2023-24 was $27.2 million in added income for the Lawson Service Area.

Student spending impact

- Around 16% of credit students attending Lawson State originated from outside the region. Some of these students relocated to the Lawson Service Area. In addition, some in-region students, referred to as retained students, would have left the Lawson Service Area for other educational opportunities if not for Lawson State. These relocated and retained students spent money on groceries, mortgage and rent payments, and other living expenses at regional businesses.
- The expenditures of relocated and retained students in FY 2023-24 added $8.7 million in income to the Lawson Service Area economy.

Alumni impact

- Over the years, students have studied at Lawson State and entered or re-entered the workforce with newly acquired knowledge and skills. Today, thousands of these former students are employed in the Lawson Service Area.
- The net impact of Lawson State's former students currently employed in the regional workforce amounted to $298.9 million in added income in FY 2023-24.
